The Souvenir Card JOURNAL

FOURTH QUARTER 2010
VOLUME 30 NUMBER 4

THE OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE SOUVENIR CARD COLLECTORS SOCIETY

AS I SEE IT

William Kriebel (27)

ON THE COVER: Post Danmark's "Queen Margrethe II's Gravure", a limited edition of 500 which was issued earlier this year. It is in a "deluxe" folder and is signed by the engraver Martin Mörck. It is reproduced here in the actual size. More information on its production is included in this issue.

I am sorry to report that our Secretary, Dana Marr, has been hospitalized and is undergoing kidney dialysis and is not able to perform the work involved for the Society. I hope for his full recovery soon.

This issue, with its bonus supplement, is going to 168 members. As this issue goes to press, the breakdown (paid dues through the year) is as follows:

2010	92	life	39
2011	12	comp	7
2012	11	officer	4
2013	3

PLEASE look at the address label on this issue. On the left above your name is a number which denotes when your membership expires (the number on the right is your membership number).

If "2010" is the number, your dues renewal is due. I do NOT plan to send renewal post cards next year. I will send a "reminder" e-mail if I have your address. Please send it to me. It will NOT be given, loaned, sold or used for any reason other than S.C.C.S. business. Please note the new dues structure: US $25/yr.; $45/2 yrs.; $65/3 yrs. Renewing for more than one year saves you money and me work. Thank you!

Included with this issue is a free supplement (another membership benefit): a chronological list of "F" cards as known to me. It is provided for information and is NOT intended to suggest what or how one should collect.

Interested in intaglio vignettes? Try the ANA. Their website www.ana-museum.org features the Bebee collection of paper money. The vignettes are featured with the banknotes on which they appear. I regret that there isn't any text to describe the items shown.

RegencySuperior's auction of 15 August 2010 had a "Collection of about 150 [BEP] souvenir cards on White Ace pages, in three White Ace...binders. Appears virtually complete from 1960 to 1999 (SC2//156) plus many Numismatic cards as well (including NSC1 & NSC3)." They gave an "Estimate cat $1800." The lot sold for $400.00.

Auction No. 15 in this issue (pp. 11-13) is part of the collection, of late member Clifford Joseph, which will be offered over the next several issues. Many of these pieces have NOT been offered before, and all are one-of-a-kind from his collection.

This raises the question, NOT totally answered in our 2009 Members' Survey: What type of material do you need to add to your collection and would like to see in the auction(s)? In my own interest in engravings, and with the demise of the USPS (PS) and ABNCo (SO) cards, I have tried to fill in the "gaps" of show-canceled items, which I previously collected only for shows which I actually attended, and where I could try to provide appropriate stamps. I have also gotten involved with material issued by countries which still believe in engraving, e.g., the cover story.

Consequently, although I have some, I do not collect non-intaglio cards but, again, I am NOT telling you how or what to collect. I am simply asking what should I try to include in the S.C.C.S. auctions? They will continue as long as I have material to support them that members are interested in procuring.

THE "F" CARDS: A LIST

William Kriebel (27)

Several years ago, I compiled a chronological list of the "Forerunner" cards as listed in Dr. Radford's 1989 book, Numbering System for Forerunner and Modern Day Souvenir Cards, plus those added in "Supplement Number One" (SCJ 11:2) and "Updating Information" (SCJ 12:1)

Unfortunately, the computer file is no longer available, and I did not chose to take the time to re-enter all of the information into a new file.

The list here is reproduced (reduced) from a printout of my original list, and is offered as a benefit to the membership. It is for information only and NOT intended to "advise" anyone as to what to collect!

It should be noted that some of the cards' numbers have been changed, i.e., the S.C.C.S. cards and the Federal Manager cards are no longer "F" cards, but "N" and "FM" respectively. In addition, any Forerunners found after 1997 are NOT included in this list.

A follow-up e-mail from the member who bought a counterfeit BEP card on Ebay (see SCJ 30:1, p. C2) notes that a BEP investigator advised the seller (who had returned the card to Ebay) to remove it or else. He was advised "that the BEP actually monitors Ebay for this type of problem." Apparently souvenir cards are less of a problem than ornate stock certificates. "It was good to see that the BEP is following up and monitoring."

ENGRAVING STILL EXISTS!

WilliamKriebel (27)

[The following information, slightly abridged, is taken from Journal 2-2010, with the kind permission of Post Danmark Stamps. From what I can determine, the Scandinavian countries are the few, if only Posts, still producing engraved stamps and related items. Ed.]

"Her Majesty Queen Margrethe II will celebrate her 70th birthday in 2010. To celebrate this occasion, Post Danmark has decided to replace the current portrait of the Queen used in the definitive stamp series, which was issued for the monarch's 60th birthday.

"The new portrait is the sixth in a row since 1974, when the first series of definitive stamps featuring a portrait of the Queen was issued. The portrait is the work of master photographer Casper Sejersen, and the stamp was designed by e-Types.

"On 10 February 2010, Post Danmark will issue four different denominations of definitive stamps featuring Queen Margrethe, covering the most usual postage charges. This will be the first Danish series of definitive stamps to be issued on self-adhesive paper, which in future will be used for all definitive stamps,....

"'We quickly discovered that what we wanted to do was create a modern stamp on the basis of the old traditions,' says Jonas Hecksher of e-Types. They finally found their inspiration in a number of old definitive stamps featuring King Christian X. In those days,definitive stamps were two-toned, in contrast to later, when the stamps began to be produced in one colour only, using the intaglio method. The new design thus harks back to the old multi-coloured tradition, with part of the stamp offset-printed in two colours (the vertical bar on the right-hand side of the portrait, and the faint background colour).

"The engraver Martin Mörk was involved in the entire process—from the photo session with the Queen to the selection of the final portrait and the subsequent retouching. And just as Martin Mörk contributed ideas to the photography, casper Sejersen, Jonas Hecksher and Jens Kajus also made suggestions to Martin as he began to make his engraving drawing in advance of the final engraving. The 54-year old engraver put the final touches to the engraving in the middle of September [2009].

The photographic basis of the stamp.

Martin Mörck's engraving drawing of Queen Margrethe.

"All in all, the process leading up to the printing of the stamp lasted just under six months. 'It has been a long, but creatively fascinating process,' says Martin Mörk. 'Everyone was open to new ideas, and we worked very hard and contributed to each other's work to create the best possible result.'"

"The engraver Martin Mörk (b. 1955) works on a freelance basis for many national and international customers, primarily in the Nordic countries. Over the past 30 years, he has engraved approximately 600 stamps on a worldwide basis, including 130 for Post Danmark. For Martin Mörk, it is not work but a passion to carry out engraving by hand and thereby help to continue a 500-year old tradition."

The cover engraving is a polymer print, consisting of a hand-made enlargement of the engraved portrait for the new Queen Margrethe II stamps. >>>>>>>

The handprint is carefully removed from the mother-die.

The stamp booklet (right) contains 14 portraits, (from the top):

—two gravure prints;
—two reliefs; (which are almost impossible to see in the original);
–eight stamps (two of each), with offset color/value at right:
9.50, dark blue,letter mail to other countries;
8.50, olive green, letter mail to Europe, Faeroe Islands and Greenland;
6.50, aquamarine, large-size domestic, 50 gr. or less; and
5.50 (about $1.06), red, 50 standard domestic, 50 gr. or less.
–two gravure prints.

Danmark Post suggests this item would "look great in any stamp collection or as an exclusive bookmark in one of the many volumes being published in 2010 to mark the Queen's 70th birthday."

Long live the Queen! Long live line engraving and intaglio printing!

Linn's Stamp News, which used to report, quite frequently, on souvenir cards, including full columns, unfortunately no longer does so. Alas!

Linn's Stamp News, 11 April 1988: Reported that the variety of the ABNCo "Constitution" card (SO54), in black (SO55) rather than in blue, was not as "has been referred to by some as a scarce essay variety of which few exist, and asking prices reflecting this claim.

"According to Aurelia Chen, product manager of the ABNC, there were actually twice as many black vignette cards printed as blue ones.

"Chen stated that the black vignettes were the first printing—a printing of 10,000. ABNC was not pleased with them, so they were set aside to be distributed through the ABNC sales office as gifts.

"A second printing, of only 5,000 was printed with blue vignettes. It is this version that became the officially issued ABNC souvenir card."

Linn's Stamp News, 22 August 1988: "At least two distinct printing varieties exist on the 25¢ Flying Cloud postal card that was overprinted for CUP-PEX 87. [See SCJ 30:2, p. 16.]

"The main difference, the width of the top and bottom border lines...the ink of the wide variety appears as a lighter shade of blue.

"The CUP-PEX card was originally produced in a quantity of 50,000 for distribution in January 1987. Demand was so great, that another 50,000 were ordered in February 1987. These were presumably sold out as well."

With a printing of 100,000 cards, you would think they would be easy to find! Have you seen one?

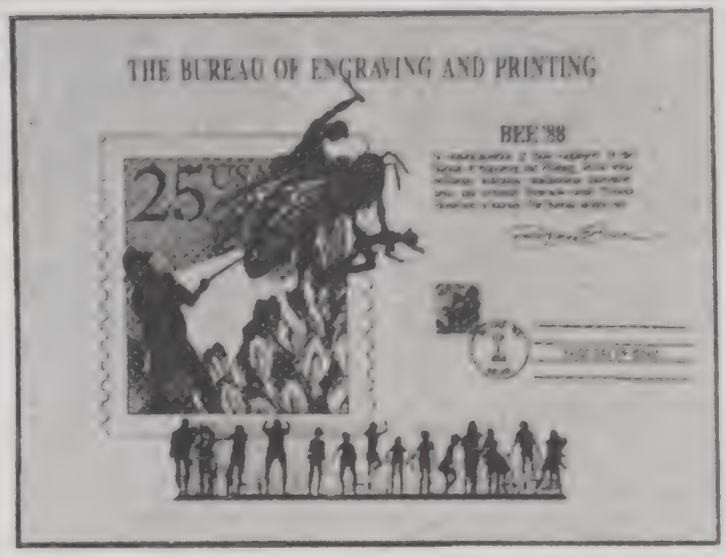
Linn's Stamp News, 9 January 1989: "The Bureau of Engraving and Printing recently created a card of appreciation that is causing a bit of controversy....

"Several months ago, when the 25¢ Honeybee stamp was released, the BEP prepared an internal souvenir card for employees who worked on the printing job, as a means of recognition for a job well done.

"The text of the card, titled 'BEE'88,' reads as follows:



'In commemoration of those employees of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, whose shear [sic] brilliance, dedication, steadfastness, innovativeness, and technical know-how made 'Project Honeybee' a success, The Bureau salutes you.'

"A BEP employee traveled, at his own expense, to Omaha, Neb., where he purchased Honeybee stamps that were then affixed to the cards and canceled 'First Day of Issue.'

"According to BEP sources, about 80 cards were produced and distributed to employees directly involved with Honeybee stamp production. Each card was handcanceled, and no cards were distributed outside the BEP."

The card (illustrated from Linn's, above) is included in the S.C.C.S. numbering system as FB 1988A. Obviously, as a BEP product and with a limited edition, cards made available on the market command a high price.

Linn's Stamp News, 2 September 1991: "During May, the Bureau of Engraving and Printing issued a commemorative souvenir card honoring the 50th anniversary of U.S. series E Savings Bonds.

"The card features an intaglio die imprint of the 10¢ Minuteman Postal Savings stamp of 1941, in red ink.

"Unlike die prints on other souvenir cards of recent years, this one does not include an overprinted diagonal black line to 'cancel' the image, perhaps because the Postal Savings system was discontinued in 1966, and savings stamps are no longer redeemable.

"The card [above, from Linn's] also has a unused 29¢ U.S. Savings Bond 50th anniversary commemorative stamp affixed next to the die print engraving.

"The rest of the card is offset-printed in blue, and stamped with gold foil on a letter press.

"The Savings Bond card was made available only to BEP employees, as an incentive to enroll in the U.S. Savings Bond payroll savings plan or, for those already enrolled, to increase their payroll savings amount. The card was not offered to the public.

"According to BEP spokesman Ira Polikoff, 2,000 cards were printed, but only about 1,400 were distributed to qualified BEP employees. The rest were destroyed."

The card was designated as FB 1991H, in SCJ 12:1.

Linn's Stamp News, 7 October 1996: "The United States federal duck stamp show appreciation card program has been discontinued effective with the Napex 96 card [ND-14f], released in June in McLean, Va.

"The appreciation card was revived by the U.S. Fish and wildlife Service in 1984 and has been issued continuously since then."

The author (Bob Dumaine) noted that "According to Robert Lesino, manager of the federal duck stamp office, the program was ended because of 'various increases in paper and printing costs and a decline in customer participation.' Lesino said, however, that a special card would be issued for the Pacific 97 show next year, and the color souvenir cards printed annually by the Bureau of Engraving and Printing would continue."

What this really meant was that they (F&WL) would no longer include a show title on the card and instead went to a "Generic" format, e.g., ND-16, which would allow their use at more than one specific show. Ironically, as I indicated in the introduction to Section 16 of my Souvenir Cards: A Visual Reference (Second Edition, 2009), the BEP stopped printing the color cards in 2000.

Linn's Stamp News, 21 May 1990: "As part of its 60th anniversary, the Bureau Issues Association had its seal re-engraved. The BIA is an organization devoted to the collecting and studying of United States stamps.

"The BIA, organized in 1930, chose as its emblem the bust of the Statue of Freedom, which sits atop the U.S. Capitol. The same bust was used as the vignette of the $5 stamp of the 1922 definitive series (Scott 573)....

"After BIA was organized, an unknown engraver created the seal..." [above, left, from Linn's]. The original engraving was lost or discarded in the late 60s or early 70s. Various cuts and copies lost their clarity over time, so the BIA commissioned Thomas Hipschen and Andy Shu, both BEP engravers, to fashion a new version [above, right, from Linn's].

It was stated that 19 die prints, in brown ink, were "pulled", signed by both engravers, and were to be sold for $100 each, ppd., to help cover the cost of the engraving and the convention. Copies were also to be sold at the NAPEX show in Arlington, VA.

A special souvenir folder (F1990C) was also produced and sold at the show for $5.00 mint, $5.50 with show-cancel.

On its 70th anniversary, at NAPEX 2000, the BIA became The United States Stamp Society. Two cards were issued, which never (to my knowledge) were given S.C.C.S. number designations. The cards have the same design, which also happens to be our logo,

The United States Stamp Society

"Bureau Issues Association"

70th Anniversary

NAPEX 2000 McLean, VA

and has appeared elsewhere, e.g., the "Snipes" card (F1979B), except that the text and the color of the "seal" are different. The card (above) was issued at the show, the other for the Dinner Reception held at the National Postal Museum. The current logo is illustrated at right

Without knowing if there are other "F" cards issued that year, I would say the above card would be F2000B, and the other, F2000C. My "vote" for F2000A, would be for the "Motherhood" card issued as a memorial tribute to Deborah Jean Alexander, a BEP engraver, who died prematurely in 1999.

SURVEY HIGHLIGHTS—2

Milton Goldsamt (1414)

[The first part of this report on the membership survey that we conducted last year, appeared in the SCJ 30:1, pp. 9-12. Ed.]

"MY FIRST CARD PURCHASE": WHAT MEMBERS CONSIDER THEIR FAVORITE CARDS

The recent SCCS Membership Survey contained a question that asked members what was their favorite souvenir card. Either they could choose one of three cards listed in the question, or write-in their own preference. Fifty-nine of the 81 members returning the survey provided an answer. (In fact, these 59 members provided 89 answers: that's because they had more than one favorite!) Why didn't the other 22 members choose an already-listed answer or write-in one? Well, some members did write-in that "there's too many to choose from: I have no favorites." They couldn't decide. But, probably it was because another survey question showed that 58 percent of members collect cards chronologically. If they collect every card, they therefore don't a single favorite.

However, of the answers provided, what cards stand out the most as being members' favorites? The souvenir cards singled out shed some light into members' collecting interests, and "what matters" to them. Here are the results, presented in summary form in Table 1 [opposite page]. That listing is split into two parts: individual cards that members considered their favorites, and categories of cards that "turned on" members.

The three cards most often considered favorite cards were the following, and are also shown [next page]:

- 19% selected the very intricately designed State Shields cards (which were printed in Brown, Green and Blue, and issued as: B109, GENA 1987; B113, FUN 1988; and B117, ANA 1988, respectively);
- 17% selected the Men in Currency card (issued as F1984C [FSO1975Ab], in black, bearing portraits of 11 men who have appeared on our currency); and
- 15% chose the Washington Scenes cards (issued as: B1 SANDIPEX, 1969; B3, FRESNO 1969; F1965Be and F1966A; each card displayed the same three scenes in [different] multicolor: the National Gallery, Capitol and Washington Cathedral).

As you see from the percentages, almost the same number of members preferred each of these three cards. These three cards were preferred by a total of about half (51%) of responding SCCS members.

What did other members consider their favorite cards? I myself liked what one member wrote-in (a comment that I've used as part of this article's title): "My first card purchase." For that member, there was no more attractive card: it launched his/her collecting career.

Table 1 (opposite) shows that 14 other individual souvenir cards had write-in nominations, each of them by only one or two members. These cards were not listed on the SCCS survey but were volunteered by those thinking of them. If they had been listed, more members might have considered and selected them. But for members mentioning them, they were "favorite cards." With that in mind, we as fellow members should perhaps look at those cards again. They may have more beauty, craftsmanship and insight into the theme they depict than we've realized thus far. (And perhaps thank our fellow members for reminding us of the pluses of these cards.)

Turning to the categories of cards selected, three types were considered favorites slightly more than other types:

- Cards with currency or coin themes (including U. S.-issued cards, such as B61 ANA 1983, showing a $20.00 Federal Reserve Bank note with a railroad train theme, and cards displaying classic Japanese banknotes, issued in behalf of the Tokyo International Coin Convention over a number of years);
- Intaglio cards (such as the B180 FUN 1984 vignette of "Justice"), and those with Eagle designs (such as B65, issued in 1985 for the FUN 1984 Convention); and
- The Engraving itself [not event] on cards (such as the B166 FUN 1993 National Parks vignettes).

BEP-issued cards were the next preferred categories of cards, followed by cards depicting any Lincoln theme.

As with the individual cards chosen as favorites, relatively few members preferred any particular category. However, the very fact that these choices came to mind for those members means that perhaps we, too, should "revisit"/review our holdings of these cards. Then we also will see their quality, just as these other members have done.

Overall, I can see why it's hard to make a choice and select one or two "favorite cards." As you flip the pages of your collection, and stop in awe at certain cards— wouldn't you agree with our members? Isn't that part of your card collecting pleasure?

Boston, Massachusetts – August 2010

Miscellaneous Plate #2664 – Vignette of U.S. Revenue Cutter Chase
Engraved in 1880 by Francis H. Noyes. The USRC Chase was named after Salmon P. Chase, Secretary of the Treasury under President Lincoln. The ship was commissioned August 6, 1878; decommissioned July 17, 1907. The ship's home port was New Bedford, MA. After decommission in 1907, the Chase served as a quarantine vessel for the U.S. Marine Hospital Service, and then as a detention barge. Ultimate fate of the Chase is unknown.

Miscellaneous Plate #18172 – Portrait of Paul Revere
Engraved in 1976 by Thomas Hipschen. Based on the painting Paul Revere by John Singleton Copley, 1768, currently in the collection of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston. Paul Revere was a successful silversmith and engraver, and an active member in his community. In Copley's painting, Revere is depicted with engraving tools and a silver teapot ready to be engraved.

Miscellaneous Die #22 – Massachusetts Coat of Arms
Engraved by the American Bank Note Company (date unknown). The Coat of Arms was printed on the back of National Currency notes from Massachusetts in the late nineteenth century. The Latin motto, "Ense petit placidam sub libertate quietem," is attributed to Algernon Sydney from 1659. Loosely translated as "By the sword we seek peace, but peace only under liberty." Per the Secretary of the Commonwealth, the seal features an American Indian in the center, holding a bow and arrow pointed downward in a "gesture of peace;" a five-pointed silver star in the upper corner; and "a right arm, bent at the elbow, and clothed and ruffled, the hand grasping a broadsword."

P.O. Die #1188 – 3¢ US Frigate Constitution Postage Stamp, Series 1947
Engraved in 1947 by John S. Edmondson (vignette and ribbon) and Matthew D. Fenton (outline frame, lettering and numeral). Design based on a pencil drawing by Andrew H. Hepburn, furnished by the Governor's Art Commission of Massachusetts through the Post Office Department. As described by Hepburn: "The ship is shown running before a light breeze and approaching a (home) port, her commission pennant at the main." The 16 stars represent the number of states in the Union in 1797 when the Constitution was launched. The Constitution, also known as Old Ironsides, is the world's oldest floating commissioned naval vessel. She was built in Boston and is berthed in Charlestown, Massachusetts.
